Lowell Five Relocates Wilmington Branch Moves to Larger Facility in New Plaza

Lowell, Mass., June 16, 2009 – Robert A. Caruso, Chairman of The Lowell Five Cent Savings Bank, is pleased to announce that the Bank's new Wilmington branch opened on June 15th. The branch relocated from its existing space at 240 Main Street to 270 Main Street at the end of the new Market Basket Plaza.

The Bank has maintained a Wilmington branch since 1978. The move coincides with the larger renovation of the Wilmington Plaza, located on Route 38. The new branch features increased office space and a drive-up that will open later this Summer.

"As a community bank, our mission is to provide the highest level of customer service possible. This move will help us deliver on that promise to our Wilmington customers," said Caruso. "We are committed to being a part of the Wilmington community and look forward to continued growth in our new location."
