TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE EXTERNAL ACCOUNT TO ACCOUNT TRANSFERS SERVICE

Description of Service, Authorization and Processing. The term "Transfer Money Terms" means these External Account to Account Transfers Terms. The Account to Account transfer service (for purposes of these Transfer Money Terms, the "Service") enables you to transfer funds between your Account(s) that you maintain with us on the one hand, and your Account(s) that are maintained by other financial institutions, on the other hand.

You represent and warrant that you are either the sole owner or a joint owner of the Eligible Transaction Account and the External Account and that you have all necessary legal right, power, and authority to transfer funds between the Eligible Transaction Account and the External Account. If you are a joint owner of the Eligible Transaction Account, External Account, or both, then you represent and warrant that (i) you have been authorized by all of the other joint owners to operate such Accounts without their consent (including without limitation to withdraw or deposit any amount of funds to such Accounts or to even withdraw all funds from such Accounts); and (ii) we may act on your instructions regarding such Accounts without liability to such other joint owners. Further, you represent and warrant that the External Account is located in the United States.

You may initiate (1) a one-time Transfer Instruction for which processing shall be initiated immediately, (2) a one-time Transfer Instruction for which processing shall be initiated at a later specified date up to one (1) year, and (3) a recurring series of Transfer Instructions for which processing shall be initiated on the specified dates. Further details about each of these options can be found on the Site. When we receive a Transfer Instruction from you, you authorize us to (i) debit your Eligible Transaction Account and remit funds on your behalf to the External Account designated by you and to debit your applicable Account as described below in the Service Fees and Additional Charges section of these Transfer Money Terms; or, as applicable, to (ii) credit your Eligible Transaction Account and remit funds on your behalf from the External Account designated by you and to debit your applicable Account as described below in the Service Fees and Additional Charges section of these Transfer Money Terms. You also authorize us to reverse a transfer from the applicable Account if the debit is returned from the other Account in the transaction for any reason, including but not limited to nonsufficient funds. Transfers may be delayed or blocked to prevent fraud or comply with regulatory requirements. If we delay or block a Transfer Instruction that you have initiated, we will notify by sending you an electronic mail message (E-mail).

We will use reasonable efforts to make all your transfers properly. However, we shall incur no liability if we are unable to complete any transfers initiated by you because of the existence of any one or more of the following circumstances:

- a) If, through no fault of ours, the Eligible Transaction Account or External Account does not contain sufficient funds to complete the transfer or the transfer would exceed the credit limit of your overdraft account;
- b) The Service is not working properly and you know or have been advised by us about the malfunction before you execute the transaction;

- c) The transfer is refused as described in the Refused Transfers section of these Transfer Money Terms below;
- d) You have not provided us with the correct information, including but not limited to the correct Eligible Transaction Account or External Account information; and/or,
- e) Circumstances beyond our control (such as, but not limited to, fire, flood, network or system down time, issues with the financial institution(s), or interference from an outside force) prevent the proper execution of the transfer and we have taken reasonable precautions to avoid those circumstances.

It is your responsibility to ensure the accuracy of any information that you enter into the Service, and for informing us as soon as possible if you become aware that this information is inaccurate. You may not use a P.O. Box as a postal address. We will make a reasonable effort to stop or recover a transfer made to the wrong Account once informed, but we do not guarantee such recovery and will bear no responsibility or liability for damages resulting from incorrect information entered by you.

Transfer Methods and Amounts. The section below applies to the Service, even in circumstances where the External Account is closed and we are attempting to return funds to such Account.

There are limits on the amount of money you can send or receive through our Service. Your limits may be adjusted from time-to-time at our sole discretion. For certain Services, you may have the ability to log in to the Site to view your individual transaction limits. We or our Service Provider also reserve the right to select the method in which to remit funds on your behalf through the Service, and in the event that your Eligible Transaction Account is closed or otherwise unavailable to us the method to return funds to you. These payment methods may include, but may not be limited to, an electronic debit, a paper check drawn on the account of our Service Provider, or draft drawn against your account.

Transfer Cancellation Requests. You may cancel a transfer at any time until it begins processing (as shown in the Service).

If you desire to stop any transfer that has already been processed, you must contact customer care for the Service. Although we will make a reasonable effort to accommodate your request, we will have no liability for failing to do so. We may also require you to present your request in writing within fourteen (14) days.

Service Fees and Additional Charges. You are responsible for paying all fees associated with your use of the Service. Applicable fees will be disclosed in the user interface for, or elsewhere within, the Service or Site. Any applicable fees will be charged regardless of whether the Service was used, except for fees that are specifically use-based. Use-based fees for the Service will be charged against the Account that is debited for the funds transfer. There may also be charges for additional transactions and other optional services. You agree to pay such charges and authorize us to deduct the calculated amount from the applicable Eligible Transaction Account you hold with us or the Account that is debited for the funds transfer, depending on how such charges are described in the user interface for the Service. Any financial fees associated with your standard deposit accounts will continue to apply. You are responsible for any and all telephone access fees and Internet service fees that may be assessed by your telephone and Internet Service Provider. The section below applies if you do not pay our fees and charges for the Service, including without limitation if we debit the External Account for such fees, as described in this Section, and there are insufficient fees in the External Account.

In using the Service, you are requesting that we or our Service Provider attempt to make transfers for you from your Eligible Transaction Account. If the Transfer Instruction cannot be completed for any reason associated with your Eligible Transaction Account (for example, there are insufficient funds in your Eligible Transaction Account, or the Transfer Instruction would exceed the credit or overdraft protection limit of your Eligible Transaction Account, to cover the transfer), the Transfer Instruction may or may not be completed. In some instances, you will receive a return notice from us or our Service Provider. In each such case, you agree that:

- a. You will reimburse our Service Provider immediately upon demand the amount of the Transfer Instruction if the transfer has been delivered but there are insufficient funds in, or insufficient overdraft credits associated with, your Eligible Transaction Account to allow the debit processing to be completed;
- b. You may be assessed a late fee equal to one and a half percent (1.5%) of any unpaid amounts plus costs of collection by our Service Provider or their third-party contractor if the Transfer Instruction cannot be debited because you have insufficient funds in your Eligible Transaction Account, or the transaction would exceed the credit or overdraft protection limit of your Eligible Transaction Account, to cover the transfer, or if the funds cannot otherwise be collected from you. The aforesaid amounts will be charged in addition to any NSF charges that may be assessed by us, as set forth in your fee schedule from us (including as disclosed on the Site) or your account agreement with us. You hereby authorize us and our Service Provider to deduct all of these amounts from your designated Eligible Transaction Account, including by ACH debit;

- c. Service Provider is authorized to report the facts concerning the return to any credit reporting agency.

Refused Transfers. We reserve the right to refuse any transfer. As required by applicable law, we will notify you promptly if we decide to refuse to transfer funds.

Returned or Failed Transfers. In using the Service, you understand transfers may be returned or fail for various reasons such as, but not limited to, the External Account number is not valid. We will use reasonable efforts to research and correct the transfer to the intended Account or void the transfer. We will, to the extent permitted by law, make reasonable attempts to return any unclaimed, refused, refunded, prohibited, failed, or denied transfer to your Account that we debited for the funds transfer or use other reasonable efforts to return such transfer to you as permitted by law. In certain cases, we may require you to contact us or the financial institution for your External Account to initiate a request to receive such funds. You may receive notification from us.

Definitions.

"Account" means a checking, money market or savings account that is either an Eligible Transaction Account or External Account, as applicable.

"Eligible Transaction Account" is a transaction account from which your transfers will be debited, your Service fees, if any, will be automatically debited, or to which payments and credits to you will be credited, that is eligible for the Service. An Eligible Transaction Account shall be limited to a checking, money market or statement savings account that you hold with us.

"External Account" is your account at another financial institution (i) to which you are transferring funds from your Eligible Transaction Account; or (ii) from which you are transferring funds to your Eligible Transaction Account.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE BILL PAYMENT SERVICE

Bill Payment Services. Online Banking allows you to schedule and make bill payments at your convenience. You can schedule, at your option, for the payment of your current, future and recurring bills from any of your Lowell Five Bank checking accounts. There is no limit to the number of payments that may be authorized. You may pay any merchant or individual through the use of Online Banking. We are unable to process any payment of taxes or court-directed payments.

By furnishing us with the names of payees/merchants, you authorize us to follow the payment instructions to these payees/merchants that you provide us through Online Banking. When we receive a payment instruction (for the current or a future date), we will remit funds to the payee on your behalf from the funds in your selected checking account. When Online Banking receives a payment instruction, you authorize it to charge your checking account and remit funds on your behalf so that the funds arrive as close to the business day designated by you as reasonably possible. While it is anticipated that most transactions will be completed on the exact day designated, it is understood that due to circumstances beyond the control of Lowell Five Bank, particularly delays in handling and posting payments slow-responding companies or financial institutions, some transactions may take a day or even a few days longer.

For this reason, it is recommended that you select a Scheduled Payment Date that is no later than the actual Due Date, not the late date, reflected on your Biller statement unless the Due Date falls on a non-Business Day. In addition to any other disclaimer of liability in this agreement, the maximum damages that the Bank can suffer as a result of a breach of the Agreement or failure to timely pay is limited to the maximum amount of $50.00. In any other event, including, but not limited to, choosing a payment date that is later than the actual due date, the risk of incurring and the responsibility for paying any and all charges or penalties shall be borne by you.

Lowell Five Bank will use its best efforts to process all your payments properly. The Bank shall have no liability if it is unable to complete any payments initiated by you through Online Banking payment services. By way of example, but in no way limiting the aforesaid, the Bank shall not incur liability because of the existence of any one or more of the following circumstances:

1. Your account does not contain sufficient funds to complete the transaction or the transaction would exceed the credit limit of your overdraft protection account.
2. The Online Banking processing center is not working properly and you know or have been advised by the service about the malfunction before you execute the transaction.
3. You have not provided us with the correct names or account information for those persons or entities to whom you wish to direct payment.
4. Circumstances beyond our control such as, but not limited to, fire, flood or interference from an outside force that would prevent the proper execution of the transaction. We have taken reasonable precautions to avoid those circumstances.

You have the right to cancel or edit any Scheduled Payment (including recurring payments). There is no charge for canceling or editing a Scheduled Payment. Once the Service has begun processing a payment it cannot be cancelled or edited, therefore a stop payment request must be submitted.

Lowell Five Bank reserves the right to terminate your use of Online Banking bill payment service in whole or part, at any time without prior notice.

If, for any reason, you should ever wish to cancel Online Banking bill payment services, we strongly suggest that you cancel all future bill payments at the same time that you cancel your service, either by deleting those payments yourself using Online Banking or calling Lowell Five Bank's Client Service Center at 978-452-1300. This will ensure that future payments and transfers made by you will not be duplicated. We will automatically cancel all outstanding payment orders (all individual payments and all recurring payments) once we have been notified that your service has been terminated. We will continue to maintain your accounts until you notify us otherwise.

Service Fees and Additional Charges. You are responsible for paying all fees associated with your use of the Service. Applicable fees will be disclosed in the user interface for, or elsewhere within, the Service or Site. Any applicable fees will be charged to your payment account, whether or not bill payments are made out of that account, or any other account linked to Online Banking payment services.

Additionally, you agree to pay any special charges in effect as announced by the Bank from time to time. These charges are in addition to the fees and service charges specified in your applicable checking, savings, overdraft protection account agreements (for example, uncollected or overdraft charges on your checking account).

GENERAL TERMS

Changes to Charges, Fees or Other Terms. We reserve the right to change the charges, fees or other terms described in this Agreement. However, when changes are made to any fees or charges, we will notify you online, or send a notice to you at the address shown on our records, or send you an electronic mail message (E-mail). The notice will be posted or sent at least thirty (30) days in advance of the effective date of any additional fees for online transactions, or of any stricter limits on the type, amount or frequency of transactions or any increase in your responsibility for unauthorized transactions, unless an immediate change is necessary to maintain the security of the system. If such a change is made, and it can be disclosed without jeopardizing the security of the system, we will provide you with electronic or written notice within thirty (30) days after the change. As always, you may choose to accept or decline changes by continuing or discontinuing the accounts or services to which these changes relate. We also reserve the option, in our business judgment, to waive, reduce or reverse charges or fees in individual situations. Changes to fees applicable to specific accounts are governed by the applicable Account Agreement and Fee Disclosure.

Disclosure of Account Information. You understand that in addition to information furnished pursuant to legal process, some information about your accounts may automatically be disclosed to others. For example, the tax laws require disclosure to the government of the amount of the interest you earn, and some transactions, such as certain large currency and foreign transactions, must be reported to the government. The Bank routinely informs a credit bureau when accounts are closed by the Bank because they were not handled properly. The Bank may also seek information about you from others, such as a credit bureau, in connection with the opening or maintaining of your account. You authorize these transfers of information.

Questions or Error Correction on Online Banking Transactions. In case of questions or errors about funds transfers through Online Banking involving your account, here is what you should do:

- Contact Lowell Five Bank by electronic mail (E-mail) at Info@LowellFive.com
- Telephone Lowell Five Bank at 978-452-1300
- Write Lowell Five Bank, 30 International Place, Tewksbury, MA 01876 as soon as you can if you think your statement or transaction record is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction listed on the statement or transaction record.
- We must hear from you no later than sixty (60) days after we have sent the first paper statement on which the problem or error appeared. If you notify us verbally, we may ask for an explanation in writing.

Here's what we will do:

We will tell you the results of our investigation within ten (10) business days, after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to forty-five (45) calendar days, to investigate your complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will credit your account within ten (10) business days, for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within ten (10) business days, we will not re-credit your account. If we determine that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation within three (3) business days after we finish our investigation. If we do not complete a transfer to or from a Lowell Five Bank account on time or in the correct amount according to our Agreement with you, we will be liable for your losses or damages. By way of example but in no way limiting the aforementioned, the Bank shall not incur liability for the following:

- If, through no fault of ours, you do not have enough money in your account to make a transfer.
- If a legal order directs us to prohibit withdrawals from the account.
- If your account is closed or if it has been frozen.
- If the transfer would cause your balance to go over the credit limit for any credit arrangement set up to cover overdrafts.

- If you, or anyone you allow, commits any fraud or violates any law or regulation.
- If any electronic terminal, telecommunication device or any part of the electronic fund transfer system is not working properly.
- If you have not provided us with complete and correct payment information, including without limitation the name, address, account number, and payment amount for the payee on a bill payment.
- If you have not properly followed the instructions for using Online Banking.
- If circumstances beyond our control (such as fire, flood or improper transmission or handling of payments by a third party) prevent the transfer, despite reasonable precautions taken by us.

Other General Terms. Other Agreements - In addition to this Agreement you agree to be bound by and will comply with the requirements of the applicable Account Agreement and Disclosure Statements, the Bank's rules and regulations, the rules and regulations of any funds transfer system to which the Bank belongs, and applicable State and Federal laws and regulations. We agree to be bound by them also.

Lowell Five Bank Reserves the Right to terminate this Agreement - The Bank reserves the right to terminate this Agreement and your access to Online Banking, in whole or in part, at any time without prior notice.

- Checks that are missing information (i.e. signature endorsement).

Requirements. Each image must provide all information on the front and back of the original check at the time presented to you by the drawer, including, but not limited to, information about the drawer and the paying bank that is preprinted on the original check, MICR information, signature(s), and any endorsements applied to the back of the original check. The image quality must meet the standards established by the American National Standards Institute, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve, and any other regulatory agency, clearing house or association.

Endorsements must be made on the back of the share draft or check within 1½ inches from the top edge, although we may accept endorsements outside this space. Your endorsement must include an authorized signature or stamp and “FOR MOBILE DEPOSIT ONLY”. Any loss we incur from a delay or processing error resulting from an irregular endorsement or other markings by you will be your responsibility.

A check payable to two payees must be endorsed by both payees. If the check is payable to you or your joint owner, either of you can endorse it. If the check is made payable to you and your joint owner, both of you must endorse the check.

Receipt of Deposit. All images processed for deposit through Mobile Deposit will be treated as “deposits” under your current Account Agreement with us and will be subject to all terms of the Account Agreement. When we receive an image, we will confirm receipt within the app. We shall not be deemed to have received the image for deposit until we have confirmed receipt to you. Confirmation does not mean that the image contains no errors. We are not responsible for any image that we do not receive.

Following receipt, we will process the image via an image clearing file.

We reserve the right, at our sole and absolute discretion, to reject any image for mobile deposit into your account. We will notify you of rejected images within 1 business day of deposit being received.

Original Checks. After you receive confirmation that we have received an image, you must securely store the original check for at least 7 days after transmission to us and make the original check accessible to us at our request. Within 5 days of a request from Lowell Five Bank, you will provide, at your expense, the requested original check in your possession. If not provided in a timely manner, such amount will be reversed from your account. Promptly after such period expires, you must destroy the original check by cross-cut shredding or another commercially acceptable means of destruction. After destruction of an original check, the image will be the sole evidence of the original check.

You agree that you will never re-present the original check. You understand that you are responsible if anyone is asked to make a payment based on an original check that has already been paid.

Returned Deposits. Any credit to your account for checks deposited using Mobile Deposit is provisional. If original checks deposited through Mobile Deposit are dishonored, rejected or otherwise returned unpaid by the drawee bank, or are rejected or returned by a clearing agent or collecting bank, for any reason, including, but not limited to, issues relating to the quality of the image, you agree that an original check will not be returned to you, but that we may charge back the amount of the original check and provide you with an image of the original check, a paper reproduction of the original check or a substitute check. You will reimburse us for all loss, cost, damage or expense caused by or relating to the processing of the returned item. You may be able to negotiate a returned item in person, and should speak to a Customer Service Representative at 978-452-1300 if you require such assistance.

Lowell Five Bank may debit or “set off” the amount of the returned item from any of your accounts to obtain payment for any item that has been rejected or returned, for any adjustment related to such item or for any warranty claim related to such item, whether or not the rejection, return, adjustment or warranty claim was made timely.

Your Warranties. You make the following warranties and representations with respect to each image you transmit to us via Mobile Deposit:

- Each image is a true and accurate rendition of the front and back of the original check, without any alteration, and the drawer of the check has no defense against payment of the check.
- The amount, payee(s), signature(s), and endorsement(s) on the image and on the original check are legible, genuine, and accurate.
- You will not deposit or otherwise endorse to a third party the original check and no person will receive a transfer, presentment, or return of, or otherwise be charged for, the original check or a paper or electronic representation of the original check such that the person will be asked to make payment based on an item that has already been paid.
- There are no other duplicate images of the original check, other than a non-negotiable photocopy which may be kept for recordkeeping purposes.
- The original check was authorized by the drawer in the amount stated on the original check and to the payee(s) stated on the original check.
- You are authorized to enforce and obtain payment of the original check.

- You have possession of the original check and no party will submit the original check for payment.
- You will notify us immediately if you learn of any loss or theft of the original check.
